

Working with play dough.....

- *reinforces the concepts of shape and form
- *encourages exploration with tools (traditional and unconventional)
- *can relieve tension and produce a calming effect
- *strengthens finger and hand muscles that are important for fine-motor development
- *develops eye-hand coordination and control that is important for writing
- *invites creativity

